The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property or him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankrupcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been various. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500 five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Commissioner suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

WAKE COUNTY MASS MEETING.

One of the largest and most spirited County meetings, ever held in this city, was that which assembled, on yesterday, to complete the nominations on the County ticket. White men from all parts of the County were in attendance in numbers, and great enthusiasm marked all the proceedings on the occasion.

Dr. W. I. Busbee presided, and A. K. Smedes, Esq., was requested to act as Secretary.

On motion of M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., a committee of five gentlemen was appointed to report nominees for the meeting. The committee consisted of Messrs. Daniel G. Fowle, Seaton Gales, H. P. Tucker, H. O. Parker and J. P. H. Russ. Pending their retirement, a committee was appointed to wait on Saml. T. Williams, Esq., the Conservative candidate for Congress, and invite his attendance.

The Committee soon returned with Mr. Williams, and he proceeded to address the people for an hour or more in an effective and forcible style. Mr. W. made a fine impression, and we hear his effort spoken of, on all sides, in terms of high gratification.

The Committee recommended the following gentlemen as the nominees of the meeting, and they were enthusiastically ratified, viz:

For the House of Representatives, (so-called.)—Richard C. Badger, vice Col. Russ, declined.

For Coroner.—H. T. Clawson.

For Treasurer.—N. S. Harp.

For Register.—G. W. Taylor.

For Surveyor.—Fendall Bevers.

For Commissioners.—H. O. Parker, R. S. Perry, B. Y. Rogers, C. B. Root and W. I. Busbee.

Most of the gentlemen came forward and promptly accepted the nominations, in neat and appropriate speeches, pledging themselves to use every effort to defeat the odious mongrel Constitution. The others, who were not present, it is understood, also accept.

M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., after earnest and repeated calls, addressed the meeting, at length, in one of his best efforts,—powerful, excoriating and eloquent. We have heard few better speeches, and, we may add, there are few better Canvassers in the State, than Moses A. Bledsoe. He is always ready, and wields a strong and trenchant blade.

Maj. Dunham, being called on, responded briefly, but happily. Capt. T. B. Lyon, of Orange, who was also present and loudly called for, addressed the meeting in a patriotic and sensible manner, eliciting the repeated plaudits of the assemblage.

The ticket is now complete, and is, in all respects, a good WHITE MAN'S ticket!

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government adminisered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

(No. 9.)

CONVERSATION BETWEEN SMITH, AN HONEST FARMER, AND JONES, A MERCHANT OF THE TOWN OF ——

SMITH—Good morning, Mr. Jones, I am glad to see you. I am hard up. Hard times and worse a-coming. I am anxious to hear you, whom I have always regarded as a man of sense, talk on some subjects.—It seems to me things are getting into a mess.

JONES—It gives me pleasure to shake your hand, friend Smith. I know you are honest, and there are mighty few of that class left. The war has demoralized almost everybody. How are your prospects this year?

SMITH—My prospects? Bad enough, I assure you. You know the waters overflowed my low-lands last June. Such a freshet never was known. The water stood over my land eight days and my corn was well-nigh ruined. My uplands, too, were washed badly. I think the guano I put on them was entirely swept away. Then the catterpillars ate up my cotton—the hands didn't half work. I made only half a crop of cotton and a third of corn. To pay for my guano and provisions for my hands I had to sell my cotton for 11 cents, and the government took one fourth off that for taxes. I had no corn to fatten my meat with—but may-be that was a blessing, as the negroes stole all the hogs I had fit for fattening. I don't know how I am to get on.

JONES—Why don't you ask your neighbors to lend you money, to be repaid out of your next crop?

SMITH—My friend, you have been living in town so long, you don't know how bad off our people are. There isn't a dollar to be borrowed in the county. I had to sell my riding horse and take to riding a mule, in order to raise money enough to pay my State and county taxes. The county had to build some bridges and so the county taxes were heavy. If the State taxes are raised any higher, I shall be ruined. Can't you town folks lend us country folks some money?

JONES—My dear friend, you forget that the towns depend on the country people for a living. If the farmers can't raise money they can't patronize the merchants and lawyers and doctors. One-half of our folks will have to go into bankruptcy. Dewease, the Bankrupt Register, is growing rich off our poor people,—so rich, they say he gave Jim Harris $1,000 to get off the track and n'low him to run for Congress. As for our taxes being less hereafter, I fear you make a grand mistake there. Holden says the people will ratify the new Constitution, and they tell me it is a very extravagant one and will cost oceans of money.

SMITH—Have you got a copy of the Constitution? Suppose we go into my house and look over it. I am sorry I can't offer you some refreshments, but we are so poor my "old woman" says we must live on meat and bread. I loved the old Union—am a Union man now, and want to get our State back again as we were before the war. I have been hoping I could vote for the new Constitution, so we could end this eternal wrangle; but if it is going to be an expensive one, I can't go it. I am not able; I can barely feed and clothe my family now.

JONES—Yes, here is a copy. Let us run over it. I have been wanting to examine it myself. Shall I read it or will you?

SMITH—You read, and when you find anything about expense, we will talk it over.

JONES—reads awhile, then looks up and says: The first thing I notice is about the State debt. By Sec. 4, Art. V, the Legislature must begin right away to levy taxes to pay interest on the public debt, and I see, in another part of the paper, that the Convention has directed what law must be passed on the subject.

SMITH—Interest on public debt! Why, Jones, I can't pay my own interest. I have a pile of notes at home on some of the best men in the county, and after long dunning I got only $33. How much is the public debt?

JONES—I happen to have in my hand one of Treasurer Battle's Reports. The bonds dated before the war are $8,906,500. Those dated since the war, including $1,392,000 which, I see by the advertisement of the Treasurer in the papers, have been issued to the Western N. C. R. R. Co., since the date of the report, $5,011,500. The Convention incurred besides for different purposes a debt of $3,050,000—in all, $8,061,500

Then the ordinance orders the funding into new bonds of $2,509,000, interest.—This makes $19,476,500, the interest on which is $1,168,000 per annum. By the ordinance we must pay $267,000 cash 1st. January 1869, and $584,000 on 1st. July 1869—in all $851,000 by next July twelve months.

SMITH—Do you mean to say we are to pay for interest $1,168,000, poor as we are, in addition to what we have been paying? We can't do it. That will make a tax of $1 on the $100 value of land.

JONES—Certainly, but the Constitution says so, and the ordinance says so.

SMITH—Well! Who ever heard the like? But there's one comfort. I have four State bonds, dated in 1861 and 1862, one issued for the Western N. C. R. R. Co., one for the Western, and two for the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford R. R. Co. I bought them during the war and paid for them in corn, at old prices. I tried to sell them in 1866, at half price, just as I did two other old State bonds I had, in order to stock my plantation. (You know Kilpatrick and Wheeler, together, got all my horses and provisions.) But the Broker wouldn't buy them, even at half price, wouldn't give a cent, because they are dated since the beginning of the war. I told him they were issued under Acts passed before the war, and had nothing to do with it. He only laughed at me. Now, if the State pays interest, my bonds can be sold for something.

JONES—I am sorry to disappoint you, but your bonds are not mentioned in this ordinance. No provision is made for anything dated between May 20th, 1861, and January 1st, 1866.

SMITH—The dickens you say! What, repudiate my bonds! Why, there are over a million dollars of them held by our own people, while everybody knows all the old bonds have been sold to the Yankees at less than half price. Our people don't hold any bonds dated before May 20, 1861, and since 1865. There must have been some Yankees in the Convention.

JONES—Plenty of them, white Yankees and black Yankees. Abbott, Heaton, Tourgee, Hood, (negro Yankee,) &c. controlled it. True, they made Cowles President, but they poked fun at him all the time. And the whole Constitution is almost word for word copied from Yankee Constitutions. My namesake, whom the Sentinel calls "Jaybird Jones," and King, of Lenoir, had no influence at all. Turner, of Harnett, living 30 miles from Raleigh, but who proved for 524 miles, and others like him, they satisfied by filling their pockets with fat slices of mileage and such trifles.

SMITH—Well, I have always been opposed to repudiation and am yet. I think all our debt ought to be paid as soon as we recover from the losses of the war enough to enable us to do so. But I do think it hard the Convention should repudiate my bonds, simply because Northern men don't own any like mine. Many of my poor neighbors hold bonds, &c., issued during the war, and not for war purposes either. It was in bad spirit for the Radicals to begin the game of repudiation. Some of our folks favor that doctrine now, and they have given them great encouragement by this business. If we do have repudiation hereafter, I shall lay it on this Convention, because they started it. But read on, I want to hear it all, though you have told enough to break me already.

JONES reads on: I notice here many offices we never had before. Here are Lt. Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, (who is to be a salaried officer,) 2 additional Supreme Court Judges, 4 Superior Court Judges, 3 Commissioners to revise the laws, Boards of Public charities and 4 Solicitors. Here are 20 new officers. Of course, they will have $2,000 or 3,000 a-piece on an average. Then in the Counties, we are to have, besides, 5 Commissioners for the county at large, and also one Clerk and 2 Justices of the Peace for each District, or Townships they are to be called, Yankee fashion. By Sec. 23, Art IV, these officers, Justices and all, are to have salaries.

SMITH.—You take away my breath.—What do they change the names of "Districts" to "Townships" for? I live in Panther Branch District. How will it sound to say "Panther Branch Township?" And then all these new offices will break us down. I always thought we had too many already. To be sure they wanted to give every Yankee a salary. I suppose they come down here to make money and being officers is easier than work.

JONES.—Yes, it looks so, especially when we find the Radical ticket full of them.—They have a raw Cape Cod Puritan put up to take care of our schools and the University—and a man who has no law license as candidate for Judge, and many others. But to proceed with our examination of the Constitution: Here in sec. 3, art. XI, the General Assembly is required at their first session to build a Penitentiary. It will have to be a large one to hold all the rascals turned aloose on us of late. To buy the ground and build the Penitentiary will cost at least $250,000,—say $100,000 the first year. Besides the Penitentiary, Houses of Refuge, also Asylums for drunkards, &c., &c., to be built as soon as practicable. Smith, old fellow, beware how you peep into bottles hereafter; they are going to put drunkards into Asylums for "inebriates and idiots."

SMITH—There isn't much danger of their getting me. Good liquor is too high, and rot-gut makes my head ache, but I hate these puritanical institutions. Go on. Tell me if there is any other extravagance in the Constitution.

JONES—We have just commenced, man. The Common Schools, which the Constitution provides for the white and black children, will cost $500,000 annually. They cost $350,0000 before the war, for white children alone. These schools are to be managed by School Committees elected by the people in each "Township," and, of course, where negroes have a majority, they will elect negro School Committees. And then the University is to be a free College for white and black. This will cost $25,000 at least. Look for yourself here in Article IX.

SMITH—(Reads) Why, mercy on us!—it is as you say. If this Constitution goes into operation the people will be ruined.

JONES—Don't interrupt me, my friend.—Here I see the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, and Lunatic Asylums are to be thrown open to all classes, rich and poor, white and black. If a lunatic is worth a million dollars the State must support him. That will cost $50,000 more than they do now. And then there's the militia.

SMITH—What about the militia? They don't cost anything.

JONES—That was the case once, but not now. See here, "the General Assembly shall provide for organizing, arming, equipping and disciplining the militia, and for paying the same when called into actual service."—This is in direct conflict with the Constitution of the United States, which provides that Congress may "provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, reserving to the States the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress." What object is there in thus infringing on the power of Congress? Why take on the State this enormous expense? Holden, the Radical candidate for Governor, gives the reason.—In a late Standard he lets out the secret. He says the new government intends to have a force of loyal militia to keep down opposition; that we must sit at the feet of Gov. Brownlow, as Paul sat at the feet of Gamaliel. He forgets that all St. Paul learnt of that old Jew, Gamaliel, was how to persecute Christians. Brownlow has an armed black and white militia to keep down white men—therefore, Holden must have a scallawag militia to keep down white men. A State standing army, quartered among us, insolent, persecuting, thievish, a huge sore on the body politic, to trample on the liberties of the people!—This will cost, every year, $300,000 at least. Brownlow's army cost that last year.

Smith.—You alarm me. Did Holden say that he intended to have a State armed militia? Heaven avert such a fate from North Carolina! Why the Radicals say if we adopt the Constitution, the United States army will be withdrawn, and some of our people talk as if they intend to vote for it just to get rid of the military. But I would rather have a part of the regular army of the Union, with West Point officers like Gen. Canby to command us, than such a force as Brownlow has in Tennessee. They say the chickens begin to run under the house as soon as they see one, and ladies can't walk the street without being insulted.

JONES—Yes, Holden certainly said it.—Here it is in the "Standard." It is the most horrible proposal I ever heard, and I could hardly have believed it, if I hadn't seen it with my own eyes. Brownlow is a bad man to sit at the feet of. A more violent, foul-mouthed, more vindictive man, never was known. But I am not done with the expenses yet. The Convention set the example of extravagance. The General Assembly to come after them will follow. The Convention of 120 members paid themselves $5 per day. The General Assembly will do likewise. The Convention cost $80,000.—The General Assembly will cost $125,000. The Convention had a useless Sergeant-at-Arms, Reporter and other officers. The General Assembly will, likewise.

SMITH—Enough, friend Jones. I am satisfied. What does it all sum up? What will be our taxes?

JONES—Add all these additional expenses together, and also the interest on the State debt, and we have over $2,000,000 annually. The County taxes, before the war, were about $500,000. They will probably hereafter be more. The land of the State was valued, in 1860, about $120,000,000. The valuation of 1868 will be about $60,000,000. The State and County taxes will be five per cent. of the entire land in the State. No people can pay this and Federal taxes besides. The land will all be sold for taxes. What property have we but land?

SMITH—Well, I will have one resource left. After all my land outside of my Homestead is sold, I will go to my Homestead and die in peace.

JONES—Soft you—a word or two before you go. That miserable consolation is denied you. Look at Article X. You will find your Homestead can be sold for taxes. How can you pay five per cent. of the value every year, when we can hardly make both ends meet? There can be no Homestead under this Constitution.

SMITH—Well, Jones, I am glad we met.—Some of my neighbors are on the fence. I was until I met you. Let me have that Constitution, and I'll promise you there won't be a white vote for it in my District—dog me; if I'll call it a "Township." Come, here is a bottle of old Nash brandy, (none of your "Blockade" stuff,) my wife keeps for medicine. Before we eat our humble dinner of meat and greens, let us take a drink, and the toast shall be

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION.

COL. WILLIAM B. RODMAN.

In the Radical scramble for office, where the few new recruits from the white side are working like beavers to get the inside track from consistent Union men, and thus promptly to enter into the joys of the expected reward for deserting their former principles, friends and race, the individual, whose name heads this paragraph, figures the most conspicuously, with the single exception of the father of secession in North Carolina, whose name fitly leads the mongrel ticket. True, there are others of the same stripe on it, but they are smaller men, intellectually, and without a record, so to speak, of the intensity of Wm. B. Rodman's. A life long secessionist, an early advocate of separation, an uncompromising war man, a supporter of the extremest measures of the Confederate administration, an officer in the army, and, finally, a Judge in one of the Corps Courts, where he signalized himself by the most rigid and bloody decisions, he has the assurance, to-day, to set himself up as a peculiar champion of the Union; and, as if, in the most palpable manner, to emblazon the shameless and disgusting hypocrisy of their united professions, the Radicals embrace him, and he is told to come in and occupy high places, while life-long, consistent Union men are excluded and ignored. He is welcome to all the doubtful honors that may grow out of his present affiliations. We know no man that occupies so discreditable a position,—one, which station, however exalted, can never retrieve. A smaller apostate and renegade might be overlooked in his insignificance,—but when a man, who has ability and powers of usefulness, perverts them, for manifestly selfish considerations, to the detriment of his own color, of his former friends and associates, and of his State,—and all under a false and treacherous mask,—there are no waters of Lethe that shall wash out the damning stain. When a man, who has enjoyed the association of gentlemen, and, perhaps, to some extent, their confidence, lets himself down to the level of the scallawag and negro,—"stoops" out of the sight of those who once knew him, in order to "conquer" among his new allies—we may feel some pity at the spectacle, but it is so intermingled with contempt as to be merged and lost.

The last Newbern Republican, (edited by the carpet-bagger, who proposes to be Secretary of State of North Carolina,) contains a report of a speech made by Wm. B. Rodman, in that city, a few days since. We have read that report with ineffable disgust. We do not propose to review it, but make only two or three extracts:

"We present the new Constitution to you, in that we have guaranteed the right to you, my colored citizens, of free suffrage. (Applause.) We have done that very thing, and we have done the right thing. (Great applause.) And if we had gone to Raleigh and done anything short of that, we would not have done the right thing."

Does Mr. Rodman remember his written declaration of Nov. 11, 1867, just after his nomination for the Convention: "Of course, I prefer that the suffrage should be restricted by a property qualification." And yet, now, free negro suffrage is "the right thing!" Why? Because W. B. Rodman is a Radical nominee for high position. Again:

"A certain member of the Convention undertook to introduce a clause in the Constitution, prohibiting any colored man from becoming a candidate for Governor. I must say to you, my colored fellow-citizens, in all candor and with due respect, that I do not consider any of you yet prepared to hold that elevated position, and it may be some years before you will, but if any colored man should be put up by the Republican party for that office, I will give him my unflinching and hearty support. (Great applause.)

Mr. Rodman is now such a slave to party—the Radical party,—that he would even vote for a negro for Governor, if nominated. Does he remember his written declaration of Nov. 11, 1867: "I hope you will not write me down a Radical,—or even a Republican, except in that general sense in which all men, attached to the institutions of the country, are Republicans, and in which sense, of course, it means nothing distinctive in a party sense."

"Suppose, my fellow-citizens, you refuse to adopt this Constitution, what will be the consequence? (Cries of 'war, war!') Yes, we must consider what will be the result of our failing to get back into the Union. Our Conservative friends rely for their success on the Democratic party of the North. What will be the result if they elect the next President and have a majority in Congress? (Cries of 'war,' 'war,' 'bloodshed.')"

A candidate for Supreme Court Judge making incendiary appeals to the negroes, and, when they threaten war and blood, if the free white men of North Carolina refuse, as they have the right to do, even under the laws of Congress, to ratify the infamous Constitution which is intended to degrade them, encouraging the menace by an affirmation—"YES!" What a spectacle! Is the man lost to all sense of shame and decency? He is now, it seems, engaged in the work of inaugurating war against those whom he formerly deluded into war against the Union?

When this speech was finished, the audience sang a song. In the barbaric African orgies which attended the adjournment of the so-called Convention, this candidate for SUPREME COURT JUDGE was heard lifting his voice in amorous accord with the negro melodists; and we may, therefore, infer that, upon this occasion, he led the refrain in singing "Rally around the flag,"—the same flag which he was chiefly instrumental in tearing down and trampling under foot in 1861!

It was the remark of Bill Arp, that, when a Virginian falls, "he fall heavy and far."—It is true of North Carolinians as well.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN CHAPEL HILL—A GOOD TIME, GENERALLY.

CHAPEL HILL, March 28, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Seldom has it been our privilege and pleasure to witness so enthusiastic and effective a meeting, as was held in this place, to-day, by the white men of the good old county of Orange. We had long ago determined never to allow ourselves to interfere in political affairs, save in the exercise of the elective franchise—that privilege which distinguishes this as a Republican government in contra distinction to other governments of the earth; but the zeal and earnestness with which our citizens have gone to work in our noble cause, as evinced by their unusually large attendance to-day, has so enthused us, that we cannot refrain from giving your readers some account of it.

Although the day dawned heavily, with a cold, damp atmosphere, and every indication of rain, our citizens were early at work making preparations for the comfort of the large audience expected, and particularly our fair, noble ladies, who, truly Southern, have always been foremost in urging us to what ever has seemed best, for the prosperity of our country or the improvement of society.

At an early hour, quite a large crowd, consisting of the intelligence and virtue, not only of our immediate community, but of every portion of the county, had assembled around the Speaker's stand,—a large number of ladies, God bless them, encouraging us with their bright smiles and beaming countenances, in our noble work.

The hour appointed for the meeting having arrived, its organization was completed, and for six hours, the Speaker's stand was occupied by Messrs. Josiah Turner, Geo. Laws, Col. H. K. Nash, Jno. Norwood, T. M. Argo and Jno. Ellison.

The day having nearly entirely passed, other able WHITE MEN present, and from whom it was the desire of the audience to hear some remarks, were prevented from saying anything, the majority of them living at a distance.

The last speaker having concluded his remarks, our townsman, known as Hugh B Guthrie, the recent convert to Radicalism, ascended the stand, and, by way of apology for so doing, stated that he had been grossly misrepresented, and, this being a free country, had a right to set himself right before the people. The crowd—or rather the whites—having very considerably thinned out, their places were rapidly filled by negroes. In the beginning of his remarks, his language was not only calculated to create a difficulty, but really did so, which, in a measure, disturbed him, and, probably, finding that the dignity of the meeting would be sustained by the crowd, there suddenly came over his remarks a very perceptible change.

As he continued his remarks, the dark corner increased and they were received with continued evidences of applause from them, which seemed to swell him with pride and make him the more furious. He was surprised that men, who had been elected to seats in Congress, could find nothing to discuss, in their political speeches, but Holden, Settle, Dick, Rodman, Sheriff Guthrie, SALT Hogan and the Leagues; that he was an humble citizen, with no "book learning," born and raised just over the line, in the county of Chatham, and in no respect ashamed of his past life. He continued at this rate for some time, when repeated and enthusiastic calls brought to the stand Jones Watson, who peeled completely the recent convert. We think the gentleman was satisfied, at least. The remarks of Mr. Watson were appropriate and well timed, while he, with the other speakers, handled the issues of the day with ability and effect.

Old Orange is all right. Her shoulder is at the wheel, and in the pending conflict she will certainly give a good account of herself.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1868.

FOR CONGRESS.

SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS,

OF GRANVILLE.

Mass Meetings.

The State Executive Committee recommend the holding of Conservative Mass Meetings at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Tuesday,	April	7
Statesville,	"	"	7
Greensboro',	Friday,	"	10
Wilmington,	"	"	10
Goldsboro',	Wednesday,	"	8
Salisbury,	"	"	8

Messrs. DOOLITTLE, HENDRICKS and others of U. S. Senate, and Messrs. BROOKS, ELDRIDGE and others of the House, have been invited to attend these meetings, and they are expected to come. It will be seen that the meetings are crowded, for the reason that these gentlemen can remain in the State but a few days.

☞ We call the attention of the Conservative press and people to the changes made in the above arrangement for the mass meetings. It is suggested to those Conservatives living where the mass meetings are to be held, who make arrangements for the meetings, to be sure to write and secure the attendance of some of our own Speakers, on these occasions, in order that there may be no disappointment. Our friends in Congress may be expected, unless the public interests prevent.

SAML. T. WILLIAMS, ESQ.

The Conservative candidate for Congress in this District will address the people at the following times and places:

Selma,	Friday, April 3rd.
Louisburg,	Tuesday, " 7.
Earpsboro, (Johnston,)	Saturday " 11.

Other appointments, embracing the intervals between the above, and for subsequent times and places, will be duly announced.

HON. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM

Will address the citizens of Alamance, Randolph and Chatham, at Camp Grove, on Saturday, April 11th. It is anticipated that a large number of people will be in attendance.

INSTITUTION OF DEAF, DUMB AND THE BLIND.—We are pleased to learn that the Institution of the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind has now one hundred students on its register. There are applications for 12 or 15 more, but we learn, from the Principal, that one hundred students are equal to the highest capacity of the Institution at present, until more buildings are erected.

REV. MR. PRITCHARD'S LECTURE.—Rev. T. H. Pritchard will deliver a Lecture, tonight, at the Baptist Church, in this city, for the benefit of some of the students for the ministry, now at Wake Forest College. His theme will be "The Literary Attractions of the Bible,"—a fruitful and highly interesting subject. The popularity of the Lecturer, and the objects to be secured, will secure a large house. Tickets of admission 25 cts., to be had at the Drug and Book Stores.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AT HOOD'S.—A respectable portion of the people of the county, at Hood's store, on Saturday, were addressed by George M. Whiting and Thos. P. Devereux, Esqrs., two of our County Canvassers. We learn that they made capital and effective speeches. Both of these young gentlemen are doing their duty with commendable spirit and energy.

FINE TOBACCO.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Stronach for samples of very fine Chewing and Smoking Tobacco. Both are No. 1.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—William W. Jones, Attorney-at-Law, Henderson, N. C.: Will practice in the counties of Granville, Franklin and Warren, and in the Federal Courts. Mr. Jones is a young lawyer of promise and ability, and will attend promptly and faithfully to all matters entrusted to him.

Fertilizers of various and valuable qualities, with prices annexed: J. B. Hunter & Co., Portsmouth, Va. We call especial attention to the catalogue, in another column.

MAYOR'S COURT.—John Henry McCullers, colored, charged with committing a rape upon Cena Lucas, colored, was returned to the Superior Court.

William Williams, colored, charged with stealing a cloth coat and pair of pantaloons, from Lieut. Alexander, 8th Infantry, was returned to the Superior Court.

Annie Williams, colored, charged with assaulting Archy Perkins, colored, was returned to the Superior Court.

H. G. Morris, charged with a violation of City ordinances, Chapter 2, Sections 7 and 13, was fined $5.

TAXES! TAXES! TAXES!

The following old poetical effusion is particularly applicable, at the present time, to the enormous taxation which will be imposed, under the new Constitution, upon the people of North Carolina, if it should be ratified. Read it:

Tax! Tax! Tax! Muscle and sinew, and nerve and brain;
Tax! tax! tax! Over, and over, and over again.
Tax on the seed that the farmer sows;
On the grain in the barn and the grain that grows;
On all that he owns and all that he owes,
To the very grind-stone that grinds his nose.

Tax! tax! tax! Double and treble on every thing
That creeps on the earth and moves on the wing;
Tax on the rooster "that crows in the morn;"
Tax on the biddy that scratches up corn;
Tax on the mare and he-foal unborn,
On the supper-bell and dinner-horn.

Tax! tax! tax! On every shape that the fabric takes;
From the fleece unshorn to the cloth it makes;
On every dollar and dime and cent;
On money borrowed and money lent;
On cash to receive and cash that is spent,
In every form that knaves could invent.

Tax! tax! tax! Lumber and product and meat and bone;
Tax! tax! tax! Labor and firewood and coal and stone.
A tax on your house and a tax on your lot;
A tax on the kettle and tax on the pot;
On things not your own that your neighbor has got
On all that you have and all you have not!

Tax! tax! tax! And after the items are all listed through,
Should the Auditor (Sic) he knows better than you
The aggregate worth of your worldly store
He may note it down double or treble or more,
And fifty per cent. to make certainty sure!
Thus order the Radicals, patent and pure.

K. K. K.—The following mysterious notice, surmounted by a skull and cross-bones, on red squares, was found, on yesterday morning, sticking up in various parts of the city:

"K. K. K.

ATTENTION! FIRST HOUR! IN THE MIST! AT THE FLASH! COME! COME!! COME!!! Retribution is impatient! The grave yawns! The sceptre bones rattle! Let the doomed quake!

It is commanded,

3d. G. C. OF BL. HOST."

We have no idea what is the meaning of those cabalistic words, nor whence they came. The whole thing may be the work of mischievous and fun-loving boys, or of Radical night-hawks, in order to get up a sensation.

By the way, it is funny to hear the Radicals abuse the Ku Klux Klan, because it is a secret society, if, in reality, there be such a secret society or such a Klan. In the same breath, they laud to the skies the Loyal League, another secret, political, oath-bound negro society, which has done incalculable damage. It is the question of "whose bull it is," that makes all this difference.

STRANGE PROCEEDINGS.—Our Western mail, as well as the entire Western mail of the city, failed to go off on yesterday, for the reason that no notice was given any one here of a change in the schedule. Our subscribers, therefore, will know the cause of the failure of the "Sentinel." The train left here one hour sooner than usual, and our Postmaster, knowing nothing of it, did not send the mail to the train in time.

THESPIAN CORPS.—There will be a meeting of this Dramatic Corps, at Tucker Hall, to morrow evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

CAN'T STAND THE INFAMOUS CONSTITUTION.—One of the Radical nominees in Brunswick publicly declines the nomination, on the ground that he will have nothing to do with that party.

Andrew Murphy, of Rowan, withdraws from the canvass, as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk, for the reason that he cannot support the odious Constitution,—which he had not read at the time of consenting to be a candidate.

S. A. Harris, of Davie, for similar reasons, declines the nomination for the same office, tendered him by the Radicals of that county.

The work goes bravely on. Everywhere the true men of North Carolina are arousing to action. The Leagues are being emptied. The white banner is raised and all patriots are enlisting under it.

WHY don't Congress remove the X. P. G's disabilities? Our information is that he stands about as much chance to be "pardoned" for his terrible "secesh" doings, as he did to get the confirmation for San Salvador!

The New York Star very aptly calls the Freedman's Bureau an institution for the "Promotion of Negro Laziness."

President Johnson has offered to the South very liberal terms for reorganizing the government. They are so liberal that Northern fanatics are raising a wonderful howl, and are determined to resist. Their wishes are to keep the South under military rule, until they agree to LET THE COLORED MAN VOTE AND GIVE EVIDENCE-IN COURT. If we are opposed to remaining longer under Martial law, and if we are opposed to the colored man having an equal vote, AND GIVING TESTIMONY IN COURT AGAINST WHITE PERSONS, we must at once unite in a hearty approval of the terms offered us by the President, AND CO-OPERATE WITH HIM IN HIS PLANS, which he has so liberally offered FOR OUR GOOD.—Holden, Sept. 2065, 1865.

A Washington special to one of the Radical evening papers in Cincinnati, speaking of the scene during the impeachment trial in the Senate, says that "it was a noticeable fact that many of the demi monde were scattered throughout the galleries, to the exclusion of hundreds of people from distant parts of the country, who had come for the purpose of attending the trial." Such a fact is rather suggestive of a slight discrepancy between the professions and the practices of the party of "huge moral ideas," which preponderates so largely in the Senate, and from whom alone, it is presumable, those nymphs procured their tickets.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION IN WINTON.

WINTON, March 23, 1868.

W. W. Mitchell, Esq., was called to the chair and Dr. J. D. Perry appointed Secretary.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman, who briefly stated the object of the meeting.

On motion, a Committee was appointed, consisting of ten representatives from each, of the Counties of Bertie and Hertford, to recommend for nomination a suitable candidate for the State Senate, under the provisions of the new Constitution, viz:

From Bertie—Col. David Outlaw, Dr. P. T. Henry, Wm. H. Taylor, Dr. J. W. Sessoms, W. D. Hays, E. J. Simons, Col. S. B. Spruill, Dr. A. J. Askew, A. J. Northcott, and Dr. W. B. Watford.

From Hertford—Maj. J. W. Moore, Chairman, Dr. R. H. Smith, Col. Jas Wynn, Dr. R. H. Shields, D. V. Sessoms, Jno. W. Harrell, Dr. Jno. T. Lewter, Wm. D. Pruden, Jas. W. Hill, and Abraham Thomas.

While the Committee were absent, the meeting was entertained by appropriate and enthusiastic speeches from Dr. G. C. Moore and Hon. Wm. N. H. Smith, at the conclusion of which, the joint committee returned and reported, recommending the nomination of JOHN WILSON, Esq., of Bertie County, as the Conservative Senatorial candidate for the new district, comprising the counties of Bertie and Hertford, and offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, by the Conservatives of Bertie and Hertford Counties: That the present exigency in our affairs, as a people, demands an expression of our opinions, and most prompt and energetic efforts on our part to avert the ruin which so nearly threatens our institutions and interests.

Resolved, That we consider the ends and aims of the so called Republican party violent, unconstitutional and subversive of our frame of government.

Resolved, That we bitterly oppose the change proposed in our affairs, in the Constitution soon to be submitted to the people.

Resolved, That our sympathy and thanks are due Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and we trust he will soon have safe deliverance from the impeachment now pending against him.

Before the motion to receive the report was voted on, Maj J. W. Moore, Chairman of the Joint Committee, made a most impressive speech, in which he strenuously insisted that the time had fully arrived when the good people of our land should arouse from their lethargy and prepare for prompt and united effort.

The report was then received, the resolutions adopted, and John Wilson, Esq., of Bertie, was unanimously declared the Conservative nominee for this Senatorial District.

That portion of the Joint Committee, representing Hertford county, begged leave to recommend for nomination the following gentlemen as candidates for the county, viz:

For Commons.—Jesse J. Yeates.
For Sheriff.—Isaac Pipkin.
For County Court Clerk.—Lewis M. Cowper.
For Superior Court Clerk.—Geo. W. Beverly.

All of whom were nominated by a unanimous vote.

Maj J J Yeates then arose and delivered quite an animated address, in which he accepted the nomination.

The following resolution was offered and adopted, viz:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the nominations recently made by the Conservative central committee at Raleigh, N. C.

On motion, the chair appointed, for each Captain's district in the county, two influential Conservatives, to canvass their respective districts, and beseir the people for the coming elections, and the following were appointed:

Massey's Neck.—R G Cowper, S D Winborn.
Murfreesboro.—J W Harrell, L T Spiers.
St. John's—J A Perry, Geo W Beverly.
Coolspring.—H C Maddry, Wm Dunning.
Winton.—Col Jas M Wynn, Dr R H Shields.
Stony Creek—D. V. Sessoms and Maj. Jno. W. Moore.
Mill Neck—J. B. Haughton and Dr. R. H. Smith.

On motion, the Chair appointed the following delegation to represent the County in the Convention to be held at Edenton, N. C., on Monday, the 6th of April next, viz:

Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Maj J. J. Yeates, R. G. Cowper, Jas. Barnes, J. G. Moore, Dr. R. H. Shields, Jas. B. Slaughter, Dr. J. W. Hutchings, Dr. Jno. T. Lewter, Dr. R. H. Smith, Hillary Taylor, Dr. G. C. Moore, Dr. Jas. E. Newsom, C. T. Deans, Jno. A. Vann, Maj J. W. Moore.

And, on motion, the Chairman and Secretary were added.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to transmit a copy of these proceedings to the Sentinel and request their publication.

The meeting then adjourned.

J. D. PERRY, Sec'y.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION IN GREENE.

On motion of W. G. Williams, the Chairman appointed the following committee to recommend suitable persons to fill the several county offices: J. H. Albritton, T. Edwards, Abner Rouse, Nathan Edwards, J. J. Williams, H. C. Smith and Josiah Sugg.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 30, P. M.

HOUSE.—The New Jersey Resolution, withdrawing the assent of the State to the 14th Article, were presented.

Boutwell objected to its reception, as it was not respectful in regarding the House with usurpation.

The hour of 12 o'clock arriving, the House went to the impeachment.

After return on motion, the New Jersey Resolutions were returned to the person who presented them as disrespectful and scandalous.—Halsey Hill and Moore, of N. J., voting aye and Haight no.

SENATE.—The bill for the relief of (Tennessee) Butler's disabilities was resumed. It is opposed earnestly. Laid over.

The Alabama bill, as passed by the House, was read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Chief Justice Chase entered and opened the Court, when the usual formalities followed, and he said: "The Managers will now proceed in support of the articles of Impeachment."

Butler spoke until 4 o'clock, concluding to a comparatively thin House.

The seats provided for the House were almost empty and the Galleries remain crowded.

Wilson commenced with the evidence, which is entirely documentary, and was interrupted in the middle of the President's reasons for suspending Stanton, by a motion to adjourn, which was carried.

The tax Committee reported the Whiskey clause modified.

Frauds are punishable by fine and imprisonment. It covers distillers, dealers and revenue officers, and imprisonment in mandatory suits shall not be dismissed or compromised, without consent of the Secretary of the Treasury and Attorney General.

Lumber and flour are excepted from wholesale tax; otherwise, no change. Report adopted and adjourned.

A SUBSIDIZED PRESS.—There are but three papers in North Carolina, so far as comes under our observation, which advocate the adoption of the new Constitution, and an investigation into the impartiality of their opinions will not prove very creditable to the independency, not to say honesty, of the motives of their position. The Raleigh "Standard," the Newbern "Republican" and the Ashville "Pioneer" are all paid round sums for publishing the Constitution, which many Conservative papers are doing at considerable expense; but the EXPECTATIONS of the patriotic Editors do not stop here for substantial rewards by the adoption of the infamous Constitution. The senior Editor of the "Standard" is a candidate for Governor, the Junior Editor is up for the House of Representatives in Wake. The Editor of the "Republican" is a candidate for Secretary of State, and Jones, Editor of the "Pioneer," is a candidate for Congress in his District. What an independent, uninterested set, to be sure, to advise the people. Here we have all the papers advocating the adoption of the Constitution paid large sums of money and their Editors supported for remunerative office besides. "The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty," says the proposed Bill of Rights. What a spectacle is here presented, where the only recognized loyal sentinels upon "one of the bulwarks" are all in the pay of the enemies of Constitutional liberty.—Wil. Journal.

It is now said the system of tickets of admission to the Senate galleries during the impeachment trial, originated in a stampede in the Committee on Rules, caused by a report that some of Mosby's men intended to visit the galleries during the trial and throw down a can of glycerine among the Senators.

A distinguished Pennsylvanian said: "If Simon Cameron is a fair specimen of the court, the President is gone. I can bring here five hundred men who will swear that they would not believe Cameron on oath, whether he was interested or not."

Greeley says the Arkansas Constitution is an admirable instrument, with nothing objectionable or proscriptive in it. Yet one of its provisions would have disfranchised, it is said, all who voted against it!

The Radical members of the late North Carolina Convention exhibited a remarkable indifference to their own future in providing that hereafter that State shall have a penitentiary.—Rich. Whig.

They are very polite in New Orleans. A man there returns thanks to those who attended his mother's funeral.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

RUFUS K. FERRELL,
March 17th, 1868. Sheriff.

THE KU-KLUX-KLAN.—The advent of the "K. K. K." into this city has created great excitement amongst a portion of our citizens. The "head centre" of this organization is a SKELETON, nine feet high. Night before last, at twenty minutes before 12 o'clock, he went into a lot in the upper part of the city to get a drink of water from the hydrant. He drank nine horse-buckets full. An old negro woman, who stepped out to get a bucket of water, saw him drinking and counted the number of buckets-full drank by him. She asked, "For God's sake what make you drink so much water?" The head-centre replied in a hoarse, sepulchral tone, "If you had been in h—ll as long I have you'd drink double as much." He had a long bow in his hand and a quiver full of long arrows on his back. He is said to make nightly raids on the houses of quiet and sleeping citizens, to enter through the key-holes of their doors, and when in their houses to cut the most "fantastic capers." Many "little folks" won't go on the street for four of meeting him, having heard such wonderful tales of his ferocity, but we can tell all "coon little folks" that his letters of introduction assure the public that I e means THEM no harm. It is said he is having forty-five hundred horses shod with felt, and that a parade of his brigade will come off some night next week, between the hours of midnight and daybreak. Persons wishing to see it can assemble on the corner of Main and Fifteenth street—and wait until it comes along!—Rich. Examiner, 28th.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, } NO. 45. }

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, it is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of election.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 21, 1865, and the soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
